President's Corner

Welcome to a new exciting year with BCREA. I hope you are ready for fun, friendships (old and new) and the best food in South Florida! The reason this organization runs so well is that we have dedicated members who get things done. As a new president, I will depend on the experience of the Board members. Thank you ahead of time. We will be looking for new members, so invite your retired friends. We also need some extra hands to help some of our over-worked committees. Please let me know if you want to volunteer, or have any questions. The School Superintendent Mr. Runcie should get us off to an interesting start at our October meeting. See you in October!

Diane

President-Elect's Corner

Hello to all of our fellow educators. We hope you had a wonderful summer and are ready to start a new year sharing interesting things you have been doing and to begin again meeting with the Broward County Retired Educators.

Our first meeting will bring back Superintendent Robert Runcie. He has agreed to be the first speaker for this 2013 - 2014 year. He gave a very good talk last year and in answering one of our questions he helped solve the problem we had of parking at the K.C. Wright Building.

We have many interesting people lined up to present programs for us. Too, we hope to have some opening activities that will help us get to know one another better.

I look forward to being your President-Elect for this coming year and hope that we will have many special times together.

Did you enjoy a good book this summer? Remember days that your colleagues used to say they were too busy to read once the school year started? Retirement allows us the comfort of reading all year! BCREA supports literacy among our members and encourages literacy in our schools. Working towards these objectives, the Literacy Committee has three initiatives for the coming year:

1. The 5th Grade Margaret Poppell Literacy Contest
2. New and gently used book donations (Last year over 700 books were donated to Kids in Distress.)
3. A book exchange corner

The book exchange corner is a new endeavor. Each month you are invited to bring a book that you have read and trade for a book that is on the shelf. Simple rules - bring a book; take a book. Look for our book exchange corner at the October meeting. Also consider becoming a member of the Literacy Committee. Contact me (954-473-9480) or just let me know at the meeting. Sandy

FREF Scholarship Volunteers Needed

BCREA needs volunteers to serve as the FREF Chairperson and as Committee members. The major responsibilities are to distribute information on the FREF Scholarships, set up interviews and select FREF scholarship nominees. Meeting with the scholarship candidates is truly a rewarding experience. Please volunteer by contacting President Diane Texter.

Welcome back to our great organization and a big SHOUT OUT to our new members. We are so glad to have you with us and we are eager to make you a part of our organization. We want you to join one or two of our committees so you can really get to know us. Take a look at all of them and find one that interests you.

Here are some interesting tips I came across in some of my readings this summer. Our concept of "old" is changing as more of us are living into our 80s, 90s, and 100s. If 60 is the new 40 then 80 could become the new 60. Here are some tips that may help you get to 100. Eat a Mediterranean diet which includes plenty of fruits, vegetables, fish and poultry, whole grains, olive oil and perhaps a glass of wine. Stimulate your brain with learning new things, volunteering and having hobbies. Exercise regularly, get 7 to 8 hours of sleep. Get regular checkups and don't use tobacco in any form. Socialize with family and friends. And lastly, look for silver linings. Eliminate as much stress as possible. Take joy in simple pleasures and events. I will be looking forward to seeing everybody at the meeting. Enjoy your life and live longer.

We know it is going to be another exceptional year for the BCREA luncheon buffet.

The tables will be filled with various types of delectable morsels to ensure that tasty meals will be enjoyed by everyone who attends. No matter who you are, there will always be a delicious tempting tidbit from the dessert table to be savored. It is always interesting to see what fabulous foods are waiting to be shared. We want to thank all of those who faithfully participate by bringing in your contribution to this event. Wishing everyone a wonderful year.

If you have any ideas or suggestions or if you are wondering what to bring, please speak with someone on the committee.
